Part 2, Step 3 – Details of Discrimination

Step 3 Details of the discrimination

To show possible discrimination under the Human Rights Code, you must show:

- The Respondent harmed the group or class members in the “area” you selected, such as employment. The legal term is “adverse effect” regarding the area.
- The harm is based on the “ground(s)” you selected. The legal term is that the grounds “are a factor in” or are “connected to” the harm.

Answer these questions. Then give details for each Respondent.

1. Describe the harm the group or class members experienced in a few words.

Give a short answer. Use the space on the form. Your short answer helps us understand the details you give below.

2. Explain how the harm relates to the grounds you checked in Step 2, Part B above.

Examples:

- The words the Respondent uses are slurs about Black men.
- Security follows Indigenous people in the store, not other people.
- This organization refuses to provide interpreters so Deaf people can participate.

Consider getting help if you are not sure. See Who Can Help? on the Tribunal website.

If you need more space, use extra sheets (maximum 5 pages total for Step 3). Mark them “Part 2, Step 3”.

Form 1.3 – Group or Class Complaint

Part 2, Step 4 – Time Limit

Step 4, Part A Is the complaint filed in time?

There is a 1-year time limit for filing a complaint. Answer these questions:

1. What is the date of the most recent conduct that you listed as discrimination?

Respondent #1: _____ Respondent #2: _____
(yyyy mm dd) (yyyy mm dd)

2. Did the most recent conduct happen in the last year?

Respondent #1 ☐ yes ☐ no Respondent #2 ☐ yes ☐ no

3. Did all of the conduct happen in the last year?

- ☐ yes – go to Step 5. You filed your complaint in time.
☐ no – continue in Step 4.

4. Is all of the conduct related or similar?

Information: You must file a complaint within one year of the last conduct if the conduct is similar or related. The legal term is “continuing contravention”.

- ☐ yes – answer questions 5 and 6.
☐ no – skip questions 5 and 6. Go to Step 4, Part B.

5. Explain how the conduct is similar or related (a “continuing contravention”).

Examples:

- Each event is about someone using racial slurs.
- Each event is about an employer not accommodating a disability.

6. Explain any gaps in time.

Information: Gaps in time might mean there is no “continuing contravention”. The Tribunal will consider reasons for gaps.

Examples:

- “The Respondent won’t provide an ASL interpreter. The events where interpreters are needed are three months apart.”
- “The manager uses racial slurs. The manager was on leave for four months.”

If you need more space, use extra sheets (maximum 5 pages for Step 4). Mark them “Step 4”.

Form 1.3 – Group or Class Complaint

Part 2, Step 4 – Time Limit

Step 4, Part B Ask Tribunal to accept late complaint

Information:

- Complete this step if any conduct happened more than 1 year ago.
- There must be a good reason to accept the late complaint. The legal term is that it must be in the “public interest”.
- There must be no real harm to anyone because of the delay in filing. The legal term is no “substantial prejudice”.

1. Reasons to accept complaint

Information: Reasons include:

- Why you filed late, and how late you filed,
- Why accepting the complaint would benefit the public.

A. Why did you file late?

Examples the Tribunal will consider:

- The Complainant has a disability that prevented them from filing on time.
- The Complainant faced trauma or a family or housing crisis that made it hard to file the complaint at the time of the events.
- The Complainant recently found evidence of discrimination.
- The delay is very short and there is some reason for filing late.

Attach any documents that support your reasons for filing late. Examples: doctor’s note, or letter from a counsellor.

B. How will accepting your complaint benefit the public?

Examples: A complaint is about a situation that the Tribunal has not addressed often. A complaint seeks a remedy that would help many people.

2. Why would the delay in filing not harm anyone else?

Information: The delay means the time after the 1-year time limit.

- “The complaint is two months late. Documents and witnesses should still be available.”
- “The complaint is six months late. I know of no harm to the Respondents.”

If you need more space, use extra sheets (maximum 5 pages total for Step 4). Mark them “Step 4”.

☐ Something specific (examples: job back, ramp): _____

Step 7 Mediation

Information:

- At a “mediation”, a trained mediator works with you and the Respondent to find a solution to the complaint. Settlement is voluntary. If you can’t agree, the process continues.
- If you settle your complaint, the process is usually much faster. If you don’t settle, there are steps you must take before a hearing where you can prove your complaint. See Steps in the Process on the Tribunal website.
- Mediation is free.
- What you and the Respondent say in mediation is confidential.
- A mediator does not act for either party.
- You can bring your representative or a support person.
- You don’t have to be in the same room as a Respondent to participate in mediation. The mediator can speak to you and the Respondent separately.
